Amaze your guests with this colourful and very cutesy Halloween #crafternoon placemat with the help of White Knight Squirts!

Prep

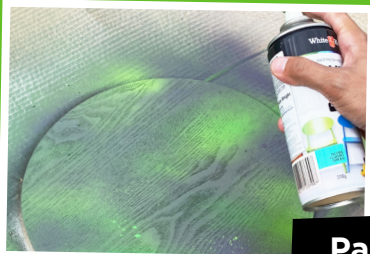

1. Get a can of your favourite White Knight Squirts Paint & Prime colours and White Knight Squirts Undercoat.

Draw

2. Draw a design of your liking on a white paper. Cut your design out to use for painting later on.

Prime

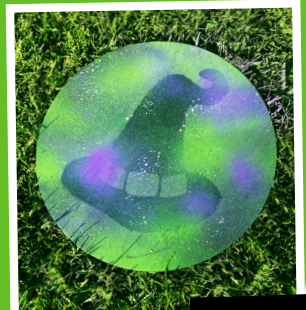

3. After cleaning the surface of your placemat, spray a coat of White Knight Squirts Undercoat and let it dry.

Paint

4. Do light sprays of your White Knight Squirts Paint & Prime to create a combination of colours. Let it dry.

Design

5. Place your cut out on the placemat and spray White Knight Squirts Paint & Prime in black for a strong contrast, once done leave it to dry.

Enjoy!

6. Do some more light sprays on your design for a more colourful effect and allow to dry. Use your placemat as a party decoration or to plate some delicious treats this Halloween!
